Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her role and responsibilities in keeping children safe and what actions to take if she has a concern about a child's safety or well-being.
- The childminder understands the early years foundation stage requirements. She knows how to plan challenging learning experiences, how to adapt them to meet the needs of all children and to help them close any gaps in their learning and development.
- The childminder knows how to evaluate and improve her provision for children.
- The childminder provides a safe and welcoming environment. She has a sound knowledge of child protection procedures and keeps up to date with current legislation.
- The childminder understands the value of developing partnerships with parents and other adults involved in children's lives. She knows how to monitor children's progress and how to keep parents informed about it to maintain consistency.
- The childminder understands the importance of teaching children about healthy lifestyles, such as eating healthily, exercising daily and following good hygiene.
- The childminder knows how to encourage children to behave well and respect others.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
