Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to observe and assess children's development. She explains how she will use the information gained to plan for their next steps in learning. She plans to involve parents and to share information regularly with them.
- The childminder explains how she will use a wide range of resources to support children's development. She understands the need to plan a broad range of activities and to promote children's independence. She plans to track children's progress.
- The childminder understands the importance of updating her skills and evaluating her practice. She explains that she will seek the views of parents and reflect on the quality of her work. She strives for continuous improvement and attends many courses.
- The childminder understands her responsibility to safeguard children. She knows the procedures to follow if she has a concern about a child's welfare. She explains her plans to provide a safe and inclusive play and learning environment for children.
- The childminder understands the importance of promoting children's health. She plans to have daily outdoor play opportunities and to provide nutritious meals.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to implement statutory and other government requirements.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she would deliver the educational programmes for children and undertake observations, assessment and planning.
- The inspector looked at documentation that the childminder would use when caring for children, as well as evidence of checks on the suitability of those living on the premises.
- The inspector had a tour of the areas of the premises used by children and discussed the equipment and toys available.
