The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a solid understanding of the importance of safeguarding children. She has completed relevant training and knows the procedures she will follow if she has a concern about the welfare of a child.
- The childminder is fully aware of how to promote children's learning and how to support them to make progress. She knows how to use observation and assessment to track children's progress and encourage them to be ready for school.
- The childminder understands the importance of working with parents and other professionals, such as teachers at the local school. She recognises that this will support the continuity of children's learning.
- The childminder can confidently identify ways to develop children's independence and is aware of how to promote a safe and welcoming environment.
- The childminder values the importance of maintaining her professional development and reflecting on her practice to enhance her service further.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector had a tour of the premises and considered the suitability of the areas that will be used by minded children.
- The inspector held discussions with the childminder to assess her understanding of the safeguarding and welfare requirements.
- The inspector spoke to the childminder about how she will observe, assess and monitor children's learning and progress.
- The inspector looked at a range of relevant documentation, including the childminder's first-aid qualification, risk assessments and the childminder's policies.
