Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder demonstrates a good knowledge of her responsibilities associated with safeguarding. She knows how to swiftly identify and report any child protection concerns.
- The childminder provides a wealth of age-appropriate resources to stimulate children's learning. She intends to observe children and to plan a range of exciting activities to support all-round progress.
- The childminder explains she intends to enrich children's learning experiences through a mix of self-chosen games and adult-led activities, both indoors and outside.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing nutritious snacks and meals to promote children's health.
- The childminder plans to work closely with parents to provide continuity for children in their care and learning. She intends to provide a welcoming and inclusive setting.
- The childminder has established links with other settings, to help to share good practice ideas. She intends to evaluate her practice and drive ongoing progress.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to deliver the educational programmes for children and undertake observation, assessment and planning.
- The inspector discussed the policies and procedures with the childminder and viewed documentation that she will use when caring for children.
- The inspector viewed the areas of the premises used by children and discussed the equipment and toys available.
- The inspector discussed the safeguarding and welfare requirements with the childminder and took into consideration the suitability checks.
