

Childminder report

Inspection date	7 November 2018
Previous inspection date	Not applicable

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her role in safeguarding children. She knows how to act on any concerns she may have about the welfare of a child.
- The childminder understands the learning and development requirements. She explains how she provides a range of play experiences across all areas of learning, to help children develop the skills needed for future learning and school.
- The childminder understands the importance of working together with parents and other settings that children attend, to help support children's development and care.
- The childminder knows how to support children's healthy development. She demonstrates how she provides children with daily opportunities for fresh air and physical exercise.
- The childminder understands the importance of developing children's self-confidence and how to help them to recognise and value similarities and differences.
- The childminder understands how to evaluate her practice. She explains how she develops her professional knowledge and skills to help her make improvements.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed statutory requirements with the childminder to check her knowledge.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she delivers the educational programmes for children.
- The inspector sampled documentation, including policies and procedures.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she evaluates her practice and plans for improvement.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted, which is available from Ofsted's website: www.ofsted.gov.uk. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, further education and skills, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
