

Childminder report

Inspection date	19 June 2019
Previous inspection date	Not applicable

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands her responsibility to safeguard children. She keeps her child protection training up to date and is aware of the procedures to follow should concerns arise about the welfare of any child.
- The childminder has appropriate arrangements to work in partnership with parents and other professionals to meet children's individual needs.
- The childminder has a suitable range of activities and resources available to support children's learning and development.
- The childminder understands how to promote children's health, including offering healthy food choices and regular physical exercise.
- The childminder knows how to support children to develop their social skills and to learn how to behave.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed the areas of the childminder's home used for childminding.
- The inspector spoke with the childminder to determine her understanding of her responsibilities to promote children's learning and welfare.
- The inspector viewed a range of relevant documentation.
