

Childminder report

Inspection date	13 June 2019
Previous inspection date	8 July 2016

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not met (with actions)

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a good knowledge of current safeguarding practice and procedures.
- She understands how to promote positive behaviour through ensuring children understand what is expected of them.
- The childminder evaluates children's progress through observation and assessment. She is aware of the many different factors that influence a child's progress.
- The childminder accesses the support of the local authority to keep her knowledge and practice up to date.
- The childminder takes account of parents' views when evaluating her curriculum and the service she provides.
- The childminder has a clear understanding of how to extend children's social and emotional development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector viewed areas to be used for childminding and discussed the proposed curriculum with the childminder.
- The childminder explained the daily routine and records to be kept.
- The inspector reviewed relevant documents.
- The inspector assessed the childminder's knowledge of current best practice with regard to safeguarding.
- The childminder explained how induction, feedback and parental review forms will be used to establish and maintain close partnerships with parents.
