The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to observe and monitor children's abilities regularly to help them progress in their learning. She knows how plan and provide challenging activities to support children's all-round learning.
- The childminder knows the importance of being friendly and welcoming. She intends to provide an inclusive setting where all children are respected, valued and treated equally.
- The childminder has an understanding of providing a high-quality service. She is committed to continual reflection and evaluation of her practice to help her to drive ongoing developments.
- The childminder has an understanding of her role and responsibility to safeguard children. She understands the procedures to report any concerns or allegations to the relevant authorities.
- The childminder understands the importance of working closely with parents. She recognises the benefits of open, two-way communication with home to provide children with seamless care routines and learning opportunities.
- The childminder understands the importance of providing children with nutritious and varied menus. She intends to make the most of the local community to enhance children's learning experiences during trips and outings and help foster children's good physical health.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she plans to implement procedures to promote children's well-being.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she intends to promote children's learning and development.
- The inspector carried out a tour of the premises with the childminder and discussed risk assessment.
- The inspector discussed the professional development of the childminder.
- The inspector sampled documentation relating to the management of the service provided, and shared with parents.
