Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The manager knows how to meet children's differing individual needs, interests and physical requirements. She understands the importance of gathering in-depth information about children's specific special educational needs and how to provide a range of activities and experiences to fully support these.
- The manager is aware of the importance of working in partnership with parents, all outside professionals involved in children's care and the schools that children attend. She knows to use a joined-up approach to support children's welfare and experiences.
- The manager knows the importance of having a skilled, well-trained and suitable staff team. She understands the need to evaluate the provision and develop staff skills through professional development. There is an extensive induction programme to ensure staff understand how to meet the specific needs of the children attending.
- The manager is aware of the safeguarding and welfare requirements and keeps up to date with current legislation. She knows the procedures to follow if there are any child protection concerns. The manager knows the need to ensure children's safety and all staff are trained to administer any medical procedures and emergency care needed.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
