Inspection date	29 August 2019
Previous inspection date	22 April 2016

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder ensures she promotes an inclusive environment. She discusses how she helps children learn to respect and value one another.
- The childminder understands the benefit of working in partnership with parents to provide a continuity of care.
- The childminder has a secure understanding of safeguarding procedures. She recognises signs of potential abuse and knows how to escalate concerns about the welfare of a child.
- The childminder knows the benefit of providing a safe and inviting environment. She explains how she promotes children's well-being and self-confidence to help support their emotional development.
- The childminder has a secure knowledge of the early years foundation stage. She understands how to observe and assess children's development to help them make progress in their learning.
- The childminder reflects on practice to evaluate her provision. She completes training to continually improve her knowledge and skills.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder her knowledge of the early years foundation stage requirements.
- The inspector sampled relevant documentation held by the childminder, including training certificates.
- The inspector looked around the premises to check the suitability of the environment.
