

Compliance action taken for childcare provision

Ref: 124114/4624087

Date: 8 December 2020

Summary of outcome

Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills is leading Ofsted's work into how regulated early years and childcare providers in England have delivered child-centred practice and care, within the context of the restrictions placed on society during the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic.

All early years providers must meet the legal requirements in the 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage', which you can find at www.gov.uk/government/publications/early-years-foundation-stage-framework--2. If we find that a provider is not meeting the requirements, we can take action to ensure they put matters right.

We received concerns that the provider was not meeting some of these requirements. As a result, on 3 December 2020, we carried out a regulatory telephone call. We found that the provider had failed to notify Ofsted of a significant event, which is a requirement of their registration. Additionally, we found that the provider had not been meeting other requirements and had taken action to put this right. The provider will be able to give parents further information about this. The provider is still registered with Ofsted.

Action taken by the provider: The provider has improved the procedures in place for notifying Ofsted, in line with requirements. Additionally, the provider has ensured that all staff are trained to understand their roles and responsibilities and the setting's safeguarding procedures.

Publication of compliance action

We aim to ensure that the welfare of children and young people is protected in the services we regulate. The Childcare Act 2006 and accompanying regulations set out our responsibilities to regulate childminders and childcare providers. This includes the enforcement powers we have in relation to those registered providers who do not comply with the requirements for registration.

We publish details of any actions we take, or the childminder or childcare provider takes to bring about compliance with requirements on our website for a period of five years.
