Summary of key findings

This provision meets requirements

- Leaders describe how they plan to offer a welcoming, safe, inclusive environment for children. They intend to establish a curriculum that incorporates indoor and outdoor learning. They discuss how they will consider children's development and interests, to support future learning.
- Leaders talk about the activities they will provide for children. This includes building on mathematical knowledge through active games. They describe how they plan to develop children's communication and language, incorporating reading, singing and encouraging engaging conversations with adults and peers.
- Leaders explain how they plan to teach children about the world around them, through joining in with community events and visits to the local area. They describe how they will promote good behaviour and teach children about respect, giving children opportunities to express themselves openly and talk about how they feel.
- Leaders recognise the importance of parent partnerships. They discuss plans to involve parents through family days and regular feedback. They explain how they will share progress with parents to support learning at home. They have ambitious visions for the club and plan to gather parent's input to develop this further.
- Leaders discuss how they will help children acquire healthy habits. This includes teaching children about the benefits of nutritious snacks and implementing healthy practices. They plan to incorporate outdoor learning daily. This will support children's physical health and well-being.
- Leaders understand their duty to keep children safe. They ensure their team undertake regular safeguarding training. This includes understanding broader safeguarding issues, such as the 'Prevent' duty guidance. They explain reporting procedures for concerns about a child or a staff member. They describe how they ensure the premises will be kept safe. This includes completing regular risk assessments.
- Leaders explain how they support continuing professional development with staff. They use local authority and external training to build on existing knowledge. They describe the open culture they want to provide for the team. This includes regular well-being checks and supervisions.

There were no children in the early years age range present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no early years children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- This was the first routine inspection the provider received since the COVID-19 pandemic began. The inspector discussed the impact of the pandemic with the provider and has taken that into account in their evaluation of the provider.
- The inspector viewed the provision and discussed the safety and suitability of the premises.
- The manager showed the inspector key documentation, including information to demonstrate the suitability of staff.
- The inspector spoke with the nominated individual about the leadership and management of the setting.

We carried out this inspection under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.
