

Complaint about childcare provision

Ref: EY556055/5238620

Date: 8 September 2022

Summary of outcome

Outcome summary All early years providers must meet the legal requirements in the Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage, which you can find at www.gov.uk/government/publications/early-years-foundation-stage-framework--2. If we find that a provider is not meeting the requirements, we can take action to ensure they put matters right.

On 23 August 2022, we received concerns that the provider was not meeting some of these requirements.

On 6 September 2022, we carried out a regulatory visit. We found that the provider had failed to notify Ofsted of a significant event. They had not informed Ofsted of changes to the people associated with the registration, as is required. The provider informed Ofsted of the updated details during the regulatory visit.

In addition, we also found the provider was not meeting some of the requirements and had taken action to put this right. We found that the provider had put into place more robust induction procedures for new staff working in the baby room.

The provider will be able to give parents further information about this. The provider is still registered with Ofsted.

Publication of complaints

We publish details of complaints made against childminders, home childcarers and childcare providers where we or the provider have taken action in order to meet legal requirements.

We publish details of complaints on our website for a period of five years.

For further information about the complaints process please view the Concerns and complaints about childminders and childcare providers leaflet.
