Summary of key findings

This provision meets requirements

- Leaders and staff have a clear understanding of the safeguarding and welfare requirements. They complete regular risk assessments indoors and outdoors to maintain a safe and secure environment for children. They acknowledge the importance of supervising children, including when they are eating and using apparatus
- Leaders recognise the importance of providing children with healthy, nutritious meals and ensuring they have opportunities to be physically active to support their overall health and well-being.
- Leaders value the importance of working in partnership with parents and other settings that children attend, to help ensure consistency in children's care.
- Leaders and staff recognise their role in teaching children to value and respect others. They acknowledge the importance of setting clear boundaries to help guide children's behaviour.
- Leaders understand the importance of evaluating the provision to identify areas for improvement. They are committed to ensuring that staff keep their knowledge and skills up to date. For example, staff attend regular training to help guide and improve their practice.
- Leaders and staff have a clear understanding of their responsibilities in protecting children from harm. They demonstrate a strong knowledge of how to keep children safe and complete regular training to help them identify the signs and symptoms of abuse. Staff can confidently explain the actions they must take if they have any concerns about a child's well-being.

There were no children in the early years age range present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no early years children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
